HAY FEVER

Danish design maverick Hay twists the pop-up concept with the launch of its Mini Market at Selfridges. Expect its signature cushions and stationery, together with an edit of finds from around the world. 400 Oxford Street, W1 (selfridges.co.uk)

Good to go

Hot from Milan, Bonaldo's 2014 collection has arrived at Go Modern on the King's Road. Highlights include the angular Alfie armchair, the pyramid-shaped Tilt bookcase and, our favourite, the Cave sofa, below, by Mauro Lippardini. Choose from two different heights of armrest or an optional built-in emery leather magazine rack – the perfect place to store your back issues of Livingetc! Cave cotton-mix sofa in Dove-Grey, £4,770 (gomodern.co.uk)

OFF THE RAILS

The Biba Years: 1963-1975 is The Victoria and Albert's celebratory book of Barbara Hulanicki's legendary fashion brand. Marking 50 years since her first shop opened in Kensington, it charts the ethos of a company that changed the way women dressed for ever. £35 (vandashop.com)

On reflection

Inspired by classic marquetry patterns, this Julian Chichester cabinet uses limed-ash fretwork backed with aged mirror panels in a bold new way. Tito cabinet, £3,685 (julianchichester.com)

LATHER UP

Indulge in these City-inspired goodies by SoapSmith. The Lavender Hill Body Wash has a hint of jasmine along with the obvious, while Bloomsbury Bath Soak smells of roses and peony. £12 each (victoriahealth.com)

SWEET DREAMS

Yves Delorme's new boutique offers bedroom furniture and accessories, plus personalisation and monogramming services that will put an end to fighting over the pillows. 1 Ellis Street, SW1 (uk.yvesdelorme.com)
